

What is a Life Coach?

Life coaching guides individuals through personal and career challenges, determine goals and create a plan on how to reach them.

- goal setting
- communication
- growth mindset
- self-monitoring
- self-reflection
- self-awareness
- improving social or professional relationships
- life skills
- motivation strategies
- confidence building
- character building
- decision-making
- social emotional learning

